When it comes to dining out, shopping, and exploring London's vast cultural scene, you could not be better placed.

You'll find restaurants, delis, cafés, food stores and shops all just a leisurely stroll from your front door. Westminster and its surrounding neighbourhoods of Mayfair, Belgravia and Chelsea are home to some of London's finest dining establishments, with numerous Michelin stars bestowed upon them.

With an astonishing range of global cuisine, artisan coffee spots and relaxed all-day eateries, you will always be able to find something to tempt your appetite.

There are numerous shopping districts a short distance away from Chimes, each with their own distinct identity. Find designer brands on Bond Street, tailors on Saville Row, Victorian and Edwardian arcades off Piccadilly, famous flagship stores on Regent Street, and fashion boutiques in St Christopher's Place. And for art and culture, you have the West End theatres, great art galleries and performance spaces, as well as more intimate venues for a dizzying range of music, drama, talks and comedy.

A SYMPHONY OF GREEN

London is one of the greenest cities in the world with thousands of parks, gardens, squares and green spaces. Living at Chimes means you are only a walk away from some of the capital's most famous parks, as well as hidden pockets of tranquil green.

Lined with quintessential London Plane trees, St John's Gardens is an attractive garden square on Horseferry Road. For larger expanses of green, you can stroll through the streets of Westminster up to St James's Park, with its picturesque lake, dazzling floral displays and views of London monuments emerging above the trees.

Across the Mall, paths lead you into Green Park, a peaceful stretch of grassland sheltered by mature trees, which comes to brilliant life in spring with its mass of daffodils. These two royal parks give you a delightful green corridor all the way up to Piccadilly – a particularly enjoyable journey into the West End.

THE BEST CONNECTIONS

ARCHITECTURE THAT RESONATES

Chimes is a new development in keeping with the architectural richness of its historic surroundings.

Award-winning architects Mae have created a sense of distinguished seclusion, hidden from view on Horseferry Road, in London's most prestigious neighbourhood. The building is beautifully designed with tiered top, middle and bottom green-glazed brick work. The façade comprises champagne-bronze metalwork and full bay windows, which welcome light from their north-east facing position.

Built around a tranquil central courtyard, the two equal-height six-storey blocks are split into four quarters, reflecting Big Ben's call at the quarter of each hour.

The interior of Chimes is as distinctive as the exterior. Apartments are filled with light and generously proportioned, while the communal spaces open out onto the lush green courtyard through fully glazed doors. Bespoke design details and refined finishes create calm and contemporary spaces which cocoon you from the buzz of the city.

A BALANCE OF SERENITY AND SOCIABILITY

At the centre of Chimes is the courtyard, grounding the development around a calming green space with trees, foliage and fragrant planting. The courtyard is a serene and inviting haven to relax and unwind in when you need to recharge.

The open-plan lounge is the ideal place to start the day with a coffee, or enjoy a glass of wine in the evening.

Adjoining the lounge is the library, which opens out onto the courtyard via an elegant glass conservatory, offering beautifully framed views of the greenery.

Owners will also have access to a stylish and well-equipped kitchen, where you can entertain friends and family outside of your apartment.

The roof terrace at Chimes

TRANQUILLITY IN THE CITY SKYLINE

It is the perfect place to soak up the lively atmosphere of central London from a place of tranquillity, enjoying a glass of wine in the company of friends, or simply watching the world go by.

Lush foliage and scented planting create a truly uplifting environment, and are thoughtfully planned to create landscaped corners and secluded spots to relax in. Garden furniture is arranged in a mix of sociable gatherings and smaller groups, giving you the opportunity to enjoy the roof terrace for all different occasions.
