ALL ABOUT AN ENVIABLE QUALITY OF LIFE

Experience the very best of village living in this close-knit, Devon community.

Bradworthy is a charming village with a rich history. At its centre is the village square – the largest in the West Country – which has been in existence for over a thousand years. Here you'll find the charming medieval church of St John the Baptist, which still retains its 13th-century font. Next door you'll get a warm welcome at the Bradworthy Inn, a coaching inn that dates back to the 1500's. Today it has a popular restaurant, serving inspired meals created from fresh local produce and ingredients. Other facilities in the village include a post office, general store and a GP surgery. There's also a new butcher, Hoof to Block, that sources its meat only from small, local farms that have the highest welfare standards.

If you have young children, Bradworthy Primary Academy has a caring ethos and is rated 'Good' by Ofsted. The community also boasts the Bradworthy Hall & Leisure Venue, which is used by many local groups. It's also home to a social club which has its own skittle alley. The local football team, Bradworthy FC (known as 'The Horniwinks') play in the North Devon Football League, while Bradworthy Bowling Club can be found on the outskirts of the village. Every August, the Bradworthy Carnival takes place, with a colourful procession and a whole host of events, ranging from street entertainment to a beer festival. It's a great opportunity to get to know your new neighbours!

ALL ABOUT THE TOWNS, COAST AND COUNTRY

Enjoy vibrant towns, beautiful coastlines and stunning countryside.

Bradworthy is only a short distance from two of North Devon's finest towns, Holsworthy and Bideford. Holsworthy, only eight miles away, is a pretty market town with lots of independent shops, plus some excellent inns and tea rooms. It also has a library and a fascinating museum, which you can find in a charming 17th-century manor house. Each year, the popular St. Peter's Fair takes place in July and is opened by a town crier reading King James I's charter which first granted the fair in 1614.

Bideford, 14 miles to the north, is a popular and historic town on the estuary of the River Torridge. It was once Britain's third largest port, but today it's home to some great pubs, restaurants and music venues. The Pannier Market is housed in a permanent building, where you'll find over 30 resident businesses and – twice weekly – many stalls in the market hall. If you like a bargain, Affinity Devon Outlet Shopping offers discounted fashion and lifestyle brands from over 25 stores, ranging from the Crew Clothing Company and Saltrock through to Next and Bonmarché.

Bideford is also part of the Hartland Heritage Coast, a 60-mile-long stretch of rugged cliffs holding back the Atlantic Ocean. Here you'll find the picture-postcard village of Clovelly, an ancient village perched on a 400ft cliff. With no vehicular access, goods are transported up and down the steep cobbled streets using sledges.

Very close to your new home, you'll find the Tamar Lakes. Just a 12-minute drive away, this picturesque area is popular with walkers, runners, sailors, bird watchers and anglers. There's an excellent activity centre and bike hire is available to fully explore the lakes and surrounding countryside.

Bideford is part of the Hartland Heritage Coast, a 60-mile-long stretch of rugged cliffs holding back the Atlantic Ocean.

ALL ABOUT HOMES BUILT ON SOLID VALUES

We know we are not just building houses; we are creating the most important spaces in people's lives and the places customers will love to live now and throughout the years ahead.

We have never expected more from our home than we do today, from its energy-efficiency and environmental impact, to the different roles it is asked to play in our life. What has remained constant however is the central importance of our home, a place where we re-energise and unwind, increasingly work in - and where families grow. So, at Allison Homes we know we are not just building houses; we are creating the most important spaces in people's lives and the places customers will love to live now and throughout the years ahead.

That's why we ensure an Allison home is something exceptional. Our breadth of experience meets a forward-thinking outlook, and we listen to customer feedback and benefit from the insight and passion for homes of our 200 strong team. Then we design and build the best homes we can for modern, evolving lifestyles. We look at the familiar in a new light too, from redrawing kitchen designs for flexibility to work from home, to transforming underused space like garages for multi-use whether it's for storage, an office or a gym. And we always ensure living areas are a balance between that all-important family space and private space for everyone.

Once you have chosen your home, we understand delivering it on time and to the highest quality matters. Which is why, from site managers to suppliers, we work only with those who share our values of commitment and pride in the job. These relationships with everyone involved in your home are the most important things we build - and the foundations of a home that, inside and out, you can be as proud of as we are.

More locally, public transport provides bus routes to Bideford Quay and Barnstaple via the Stagecoach 372 service and for onward travel to Exeter, Devon's capital City, trains run every hour from Barnstaple via the 'Tarka Line'.

For those wanting to view the beautiful North Devon countryside by bike or foot, The Tarka Trail is the perfect day out. It's one of the country's longest continuous traffic free walking and cycling paths and is ideal for families. Dartmoor National Park is also only 30 miles away and is another great option for all year-round fun.
