Neil Doherty, Managing Director

Newton Meadows Bourne Road Colsterworth, NG33 5JF

We are delighted to present Newton Meadows, an exciting new development of three, four and five bedroom homes in Colsterworth. This pretty village, in the district of South Kesteven, Lincolnshire is surrounded by open fields, woodlands, quaint villages and thriving market towns, providing a delightful environment for modern living.

Activities/Amenities

Incorporating the hamlet of Woolsthorpe-by-Colsterworth, birthplace of Sir Isaac Newton, this historic village dates back to Roman times. A great place to live, Colsterworth offers the peace and tranquillity of village life, yet is also within easy reach of Grantham, Melton Mowbray, Oakham and Stamford.

With its own post office, GP surgery, local supermarket store, hairdressers, sports and social club, youth centre and nursery, the village is well served for everyday needs. For more comprehensive facilities, the vibrant town of Grantham is just 9 miles to north of the village. Here you will find several gyms, a swimming pool, a bowling alley, and plenty of parks and open spaces. The town is also home to Grantham Town football club, Kesteven Rugby Club and Grantham Cricket Club. For golfers, nearby Stoke Rochford Golf Club provides an attractive and challenging course for golfers of all levels.

Education

Newton Meadows is ideally located for families. The Colsterworth Church of England Primary School in the village provides education for pupils aged 4 to 11. Secondary schools in the area include The King's School at Grantham, a selective academy for boys aged 11-18 with an Ofsted 'Outstanding' rating. For girls, the Kesteven & Grantham Girls' School is also Ofsted 'Outstanding' rated. Other secondary schools in Grantham include The Priory Ruskin Academy (Ofsted 'Outstanding' rated) and The Walton Academy (Ofsted 'Good' rated). Independent schools nearby include Uppingham School and Oakham School, both rated 'Good' by Ofsted. For higher education, Grantham College & University provides a wide range of courses and apprenticeships.

Work/Transport

Colsterworth enjoys fantastic access to the A1 and is conveniently located for driving to the nearby towns of Grantham, just 9 miles north and Stamford, around 13 miles south. The city of Peterborough is also within easy reach by road in around half an hour.

For travelling by rail, nearby Grantham station offers a regular service into London Kings Cross St Pancras in as little as 1 hour 5 minutes. From Grantham you can also head north to York in just over an hour, or west to Nottingham in as little as 32 minutes. From Melton Mowbray station, just under 15 miles away, there are fast and frequent trains into Leicester in just 17 minutes or direct to Birmingham New Street in 1 hour 6 minutes. For venturing further afield, East Midlands airport is approximately 36 miles away at Castle Donington, offering flights to numerous destinations.

Shopping/Dining

For shopping, The George Shopping Centre at Grantham offers a selection of independent boutiques and popular high street stores. In the town centre you will also find the Sir Isaac Newton Shopping Centre with a further choice of shops, along with a supermarket. Grantham is also home to plenty of cafes, pubs and restaurants for dining out. For a wider choice of shops, along with great nightlife, the bustling and prosperous market town of Stamford with its quaint streets, delicious food and twice weekly markets is a great place to visit. A little further afield, Queensgate, the main shopping centre in the heart of Peterborough, is home to over 90 stores, including all of the popular high street brands.
