Entering through the kitchen offers a wonderful first impression, boasting a tasteful Butler sink fitted with traditional brassware, a dramatic splashback lined with jet black subway tile, and an array of appliances cleverly concealed and seamlessly integrated – including an inbuilt microwave, washer-dryer, and wine rack. One rather adorable stained glass window guides you toward the stairway, transporting you to the remainder of this humble abode. Immediately on your left is the first double bedroom, where the owners have provided a queen sized bed and fitted a plentiful array of inbuilt storage spaces including cupboards, shelving, and a wardrobe. Adjacent is the bathroom, exuding a carefully considered attention to detail across every surface. Traditional brassware has been fitted within the rainforest shower enclosure, a classic yet contemporary heated towel rail has been mounted to the wall, and a gorgeous colour palette of charcoal, periwinkle, and seashell flourishes across the Moroccan-style tiles lining the floor. Towards the front of the property is where you'll find the reception room and the master bedroom, festooned in a majestic palm patterned wallpaper and fitted with a spacious walk-in wardrobe.
