LOCATION

The site is right on the edge of the market town of Oswestry with open countryside on the doorstep yet the town centre can be reached in less than 10 minutes on foot. The road networks linking the towns and cities such as Shrewsbury, Chester, Manchester and Birmingham are within very easy access, as are the local train and bus stations.

The historic Oswestry Hillfort can be found within the area. It is considered to be one of the best examples of Iron Age earthworks in Europe. A short walk to the top of the Hillfort rewards with panoramic views across the town of Oswestry, down to South Shropshire, across into Wales and to the Cheshire plains in the North.

There are also ancient woodlands and multi-sport playing fields on the doorstep to be enjoyed, including the local cricket and football pavilion.

SURROUNDING TOWNS & VILLAGES

Oswestry is a market town located on the border of England and Wales. Famous for its outside markets on Wednesdays and Saturdays and livestock market, Oswestry is one of the country's oldest recorded border towns. The town centre boasts a mix of independent and high street shops along with specialist retailers and has a number of popular restaurants. Nearby, Oswestry show ground plays host to a variety of annual fairs, music festivals and the popular, annual Oswestry show. The nearby historic market town of Shrewsbury enjoys their annual Flower Show which is held in the Quarry Park close to the River Severn and the town is popular with tourists because of its Castle, Abbey and ancient timber framed buildings, some of which date back to the 15th Century. The town also offers a wealth of high street shops, independent traders, a theatre and a wide choice of eateries.
