Main Description

A MUST SEE PROPERTY - a great opportunity to purchase a modern, excellent sized home with ample storage and great unique features.

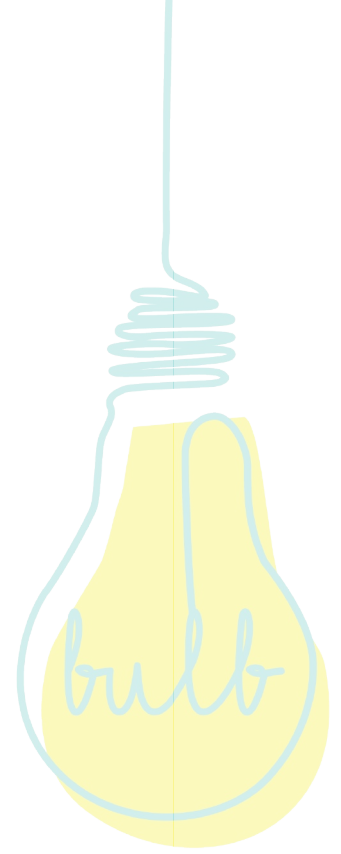

It is conveniently situated in a quiet area off road on a semi-private drive within walking distance of local shops & schools. This extremely deceptive semi-detached 3 double bedroom house is well-presented and modernised by current owners who have installed some unique features since it's first build such as a new pergola, an additional parking space, CCTV and so on.

On the ground floor you have a fully tiled downstairs W/C, large living space, a spacious kitchen diner with a pantry and fitted appliances. The kitchen has double doors that lead to the large garden with patio area and newly built roofed pergola and access to the rear of the garage.

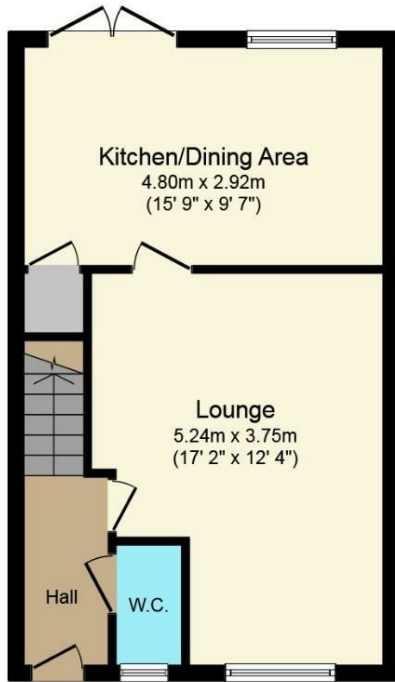

To the first floor the property has three great sized bedrooms, with the master bedroom benefiting of an en-suite, made to fit wardrobes and an additional fitted wardrobe for extra storage, additionally there is a fully tiled shared family bathroom.

Externally the property features a great sized garage with ample space for one car, as well as parking space available for an additional two cars while other properties of this style in the development only benefit from one parking space. Viewings are highly recommended to appreciate this lovely family home! Contact Bulb Estate Agents TODAY for further details.

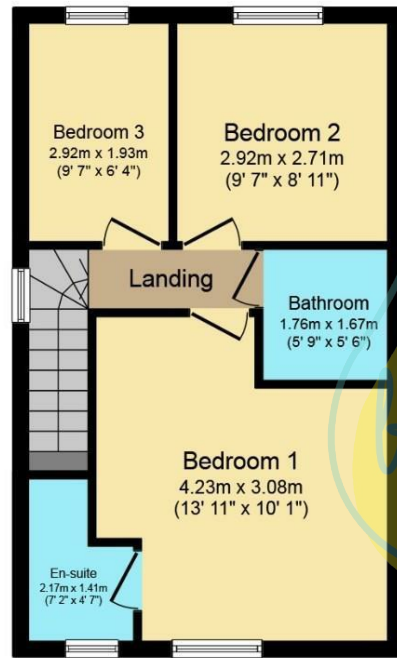

Important Note: Vendors are highly motivated and are looking for serious buyers who can move quickly.
