Property

Pushing open the front door of this charming cottage we are welcomed by the entrance where the surprising feeling of space that flows throughout the property is instantly apparent. A door opens to the attractive ground floor bathroom at the front whilst doors to the utility room and sitting lead into the main accommodation. The sitting room is set to the centre of the cottage and rightly feels like the heart of the home. A large fireplace provides a focal point to this impressive room and we flow from here into both the second reception room and kitchen dining room making the three spaces ideal for entertaining and family life. To the front we pass the stairs and flow open plan into the second reception room, this versatile space currently serves as a study but is of ample size to be a formal dining space. To the rear we enter the impressive kitchen dining room through the french doors in the sitting room. This exceptional space opens to the courtyard and offers a range of modern fitted kitchen units set below bamboo work surfaces. A fitted oven, hob and extractor feature whilst the sink is set below a window looking onto the courtyard. A door opens to a large walk in store room and we return to the entrance hall via the utility room. Climbing the stairs to the first floor we find our master bedroom which opens to the roof terrace, a substantial double room. The second bedroom looks to the front aspect whilst the recently refitted shower room boast a modern white shower suite set against attractive tiled walls and a patterned floor which echoes the taste and standard throughout. Climbing the second set of stairs we find the third bedroom on the upper floor.

Outside

We approach the property via Turnstile Lane a pedestrian only access which leads from both Upper and Lower Olland Street. The front door enters the house from Turnstile Lane whilst gated access leads into the courtyard garden. The rear courtyard is framed by a wall providing a private seating area on the patio. French doors open from the kitchen dining room allowing the two spaces to flow seamlessly, an iron staircase rises from here to the roof terrace expanding the outside entertaining space. The terrace is decked with timber and offers a charming view of 'old' Bungay looking along the lane. French doors lead into the master bedroom.

Location

Corner Cottage is superbly situated on Turnstile Lane, nestled in the heart of this charming market town whilst offering an exceptional feeling of privacy. Bungay offers a good range of all the necessary amenities and shops, schools, antique shops, restaurants, The Fisher Theatre (now showing films) and leisure facilities including indoor swimming pool and golf club. The Cathedral City of Norwich is about 30 mins drive to the North and has a mainline train link to London Liverpool Street (1hr 54mins). Diss provides another mainline link to London and is 19 miles distance. The unspoilt heritage coastline of Suffolk with the lovely beaches of Southwold and Walberswick are a short distance away.
