Silverman Black is delighted to offer this good size and well located studio apartment, positioned on a well regarded private development only about 5 minutes walk from Hackbridge BR station. The property, which is being sold with vacant possession and with no onward chain, has been recently redecorated and had new double glazed windows fitted in the living room but could still do with some updating and refurbishment in the kitchen and bathroom facilities, whilst several similar apartments have found it beneficial to upgrade the electric night storage heater located in the lounge. The accommodation comprises of a private entrance hall with a good size coats/storage cupboard, a compact shower room, a generously proportioned living room with a deep bay window overlooking the rear gardens and a good size kitchen. Other benefits include electric night storage heating, an allocated parking space with ample visitors spaces, well maintained communal gardens and a good length lease. Because of the location, we feel this unit would make an ideal first purchase, investment or a pied a terre for anyone working in the city but perhaps living full time further out of "town". We have the keys, the property is empty and we strongly recommend visiting - so call today to make an appointment!
