Spencers Wood, Reading, Berkshire, RG7 1HT

The Tingdene Addington bungalow park home exterior boasts two pillars framing the door, grey cottage bar windows and sliding patio doors. The spacious lounge features a three seater sofa, built in shelving, white fireplace suite and modern furniture. The kitchen/diner has a vaulted ceiling, creating a large, open space. The dining area has feature wallpaper and the kitchen features an island with bar stools, integrated appliances and a skylight. The master bedroom has a king size ottoman storage divan bed and a walk-in wardrobe with skylight.

The park is surrounded by open countryside and yet only a few miles south of the bustling town of Reading, approximately 5 miles away. Nearer to home the village of Spencers Wood is approximately 1 mile from the Park providing day to day needs including; Post Office, Convenience store with newsagents and off licence, Car garage, Bakery, Chemist, Hair and Beauty Salon and Restaurant. The village also provides a Library and Village Hall whilst a Doctors Surgery is close by in the neighbouring village of Swallowfield approximately 1.5 miles from the Park.
