The Tingdene Barnwell bungalow park home blends together traditional park home design with generous room layout and ample storage. The living area features comfortable furniture, an electric fire with a white surround and three box bay windows that allow natural light to stream in throughout the day.

The kitchen features integrated appliances and a stainless steel gas hob and electric oven. The spacious master bedroom features a king size divan bed, a walk in wardrobe, dressing table and an en suite. The home also features a second bedroom with a double divan bed and a study with a desk and office chair.

This park is situated in a quiet woodland setting, close to beautiful countryside. The development is for 50+ and is ideal for semi retired and retired within a community of like minded people. This well established development also enjoys a licensed clubhouse. Conveniently, there is a bus service at the park entrance to Bedford (4 miles), Luton (14 miles) and Milton Keynes all with excellent shopping centres. Pets are considered (one cat).
