From here you immediately approach the family bathroom, which includes a built in washing machine. Next is the spacious kitchen dining room, which, like a lot of the main accommodation overlooks the charming and mature grounds. The kitchen itself benefits from a range of base and eye level units and there is ample space for all of the expected white goods and there is a space for a dining room table and chairs. The sitting room and bedroom 3 also overlook the rear garden with the master bedroom and bedroom 2, benefiting from a side aspect. In addition to the family bathroom the first and second bedrooms also share at Jack & Gill style en suite shower room.

As you can see from the floorplan, all of the rooms are a good size and whilst the property is laid out as 3 bedrooms and 2 reception rooms, it could also be used in other ways, should you need a home office for example.

It is surrounded by an area of outstanding natural beauty such as Boxhill with the River Mole below, the local pub (The Stepping Stones) is right next door to the house and Denbies Vineyard, the largest in southern England. The nearest station is Box hill and Westhumble station, with Dorking and Dorking Deepdene nearby also.

The property also has use of the shared communal grounds, where there is an extensive area of well kept lawns, feature borders, shrubs and trees. To the front of the property there is ample parking and a detached garage.
