The Omar Image bungalow park home lounge is furnished with modern and stylish furniture and a contemporary, wall mounted electric fire. The kitchen and dining area features plenty of storage and worktop space with integrated appliances including a fridge freezer, dishwasher and washing machine. The double bedrooms both feature padded headboards and free standing bedside tables, the master bedroom has an en suite and fitted wardrobes.

This wonderful park, situated within the Kent countryside offers secure gated community living and has the advantage of having an all year round, 12 month licence. Located near Sevenoaks in Kent, the park offers the space and tranquility that many buyers are looking for and pets are welcome (subject to managers approval). The park has extensive grounds and walks on site and is a private and quiet community.

This park provides the opportunity to live in a rural local community whilst having easy access to M20, the main town of Sevenoaks and wider Kent and London. Wrotham is a picturesque village on the Pilgrim's Way at the foot of the North Downs. The local village area is an ideal quiet location for those who enjoy escaping the urban noise.
