Spacious and well presented accommodation, glorious distant views towards the sea and a pleasant landscaped rear garden are three of the many reasons why viewing of this family home is highly recommended. Upon entering, you can not fail to be impressed with the neutral colour schemes complimented by tiled flooring and recently updated carpets. The lounge has a bright and airy dual aspect and the kitchen, which has the use of many integrated appliances extends into a useful dining area. There are three bedrooms, a modern fitted bathroom and a ground floor cloakroom. Parking for one vehicle is provided by the private driveway and the rear garden has been landscaped with granite paving and lawn making a lovely spot to enjoy the afternoon sun. In addition to the loft space there is a useful under house storage area. Don't miss out and book your appointment to view!

Woodingdean is an eastern suburb of the city of Brighton and Hove, separated from the main part of the city by downland and the Brighton Racecourse and still holds some attributes of a village, including two sets of shops. Woodingdean today has dynamic social and religious communities of clubs, associations and organisations which also include sports and leisure facilities. Travel networks in and out of the city are easily accessible.
