Property Description

Situation

Enjoying a pleasing position, the property is found upon a spacious plot set back off a small country lane towards the outskirts of the village. Over the years, Burston has proved to have been a popular and sought after location offering a lovely assortment of many period and historic properties whilst retaining a strong and active local community helped by having schooling, public house, fine church, village hall and playing fields. The historic market town of Diss is within easy reach lying three miles to the south within the beautiful countryside surrounding the Waveney Valley. The town offers an extensive and diverse range of many day to day amenities and facilities along with a mainline railway station with regular/direct services to London Liverpool Street and Norwich.

Description

The property comprises an individually built and designed four bedroom detached house having been constructed 20 years ago and of traditional brick and block cavity wall with sealed unit upvc double glazed windows and doors, whilst being heated by an oil fired central heating boiler via radiators. Additionally there has been the installation of solar panelling with a feed in tariff generating approximately £1,000 per annum whilst giving reduced rates. Internally the property offers spacious accommodation in the regions of 1,800 sq ft being of a high specification and with a good deal of versatile living space having well proportioned rooms all flooded by plenty of natural light.
