

Property Connections

Estate Agent

01506 650 550

42 Kirk Road, Bathgate

www.propertyconnections.uk.com

Decorated in soothing tones, the entrance hallway gives you an insight of the high quality, period interiors to follow. There is gorgeous wooden flooring, feature panelling and access to the lounge & upper level.

Located to the front of the property, the formal lounge boasts a gorgeous feature fireplace which creates both an added warmth, and a wonderful focal point for the room. There are gorgeous high ceilings with ornate cornicing and large windows which command fantastic views over the surrounding area.

Found at the rear of the property, the cottage kitchen boasts an abundance of base & wall mounted units with feature handles, worktop & splash back design. There is also a host of integrated & freestanding appliances and a door leading onto the rear garden.

The dining room is finished in creamy hues with opulent pops of ruby, which add to the overall luxurious feel of the property. There is a large rear facing window with spanning views over the gardens. From here you also gain easy access to the kitchen.

Rising a split-level landing, the upper level of the property is bright and spacious, you are given easy access to all the bedrooms, family shower room and ample storage cupboards. There is also a large skylight which bathes the upper level in abundance of natural lighting.

Spacious master bedroom with lovely stripped wooden flooring, large bay window and ample built-in wardrobes.

Bedroom 2 is a further impressive double with ample floorspace for various furniture formations, neutral décor and a large rear facing window.

Lovely bedroom currently utilized as a single room with office space – ideal for those working from home. However, could be used flexibly to suit the need of any prospective purchaser. Window formation is to the rear.

Situated just off the half landing is the 3-piece shower room comprising large walk-in enclosure, W.C and wash hand basin. There is an attractive tile design & a large, glazed window for optimum light & privacy.

Externally the property is accompanied by large, sun trap gardens. To the front it is framed by a pretty trellis arch and attractive flowerbeds, from here you also gain access via a gate to the rear garden. To the rear there is an abundance of attractive planting, large patio area and decked section.

The garden is bound by a large stone-built wall & fencing panels for optimum security and privacy. You also gain access to the detached garage and private driveway with ample parking for up to 3 cars. The property also has Solar panels which will be left with the sale.

Whilst the above particulars are believed to be correct, they are not warranted and do not form part of any contract.