Martin & Co are delighted to present this two-bedroom first floor flat in Radley House, Marston Ferry Road. The property is offered to the market with flexibility. It can be sold with tenants in situ, providing an attractive investment opportunity, or with vacant possession, making it equally appealing to buyers looking for a new home.

The flat comprises two well-proportioned bedrooms with excellent storage, a spacious open-plan living area, a fitted kitchen and a bathroom. The living space opens onto a private balcony which enjoys views over the communal grounds, while further storage can be found throughout the hallway and bedrooms. The property also benefits from an allocated parking space within the grounds.

Radley House is conveniently located just minutes from the local sports centre and doctor's surgery, and within easy walking distance of Summertown with its wide range of shops, cafés, bars, restaurants and excellent public transport connections into Oxford City Centre. The property is also well placed for access to the John Radcliffe Hospital and lies only 0.8 miles from the renowned Dragon School.

This first floor flat combines comfortable accommodation with an enviable location and represents an excellent investment purchase.
