‘Occupying a superb 0.34 acre plot overlooking a small valley and brook on the village outskirts, an attractive detached period cottage’

The Property

Bridge Cottage occupies an idyllic rural position overlooking a small valley and brook on the outskirts of the village of Lower Stanton St Quintin. Built in 1841, the cottage has been subject to a number of extensions evolving the cottage into a spacious family home whilst retaining its period charm and character. Today, the sizable accommodation extends to over 2,000 sq.ft. and enjoys a delightful countryside outlook from every window. On the ground floor, there are three characterful reception rooms arranged around a central hallway with galleried staircase and a downstairs WC off. The living room has a wood burning stove and bi-fold doors opening to the kitchen/breakfast room which also has double doors leading outside to a sun terrace. The kitchen has flagstone flooring and fitted timber units with integrated appliances and double Belfast sink. Completing the ground floor there is a utility room with rear access, ideal for country living. The flexible first floor accommodation comprises four bedrooms and three bathrooms, one of which is en-suite.

Bridge Cottage is set within 0.34 acres of gardens laid mostly to lawn and arranged over two principal levels. A gravelled parking bay provides plenty of private parking for numerous vehicles. Sandstone steps lead up to the front door and are surrounded by vibrant well-stocked flower and shrub beds. The garden enjoys the sun all day long with various seating terraces arranged to take advantage of the sun spots and benefit from the uninterrupted view. Within the rear garden, there is a stone out building, timber shed and side access to the lane.

Situation

The village of Lower Stanton St Quintin is situated equidistance between the market town of Malmesbury and the larger town of Chippenham. The property is located on the rural edge of the village and there are excellent local walks from the doorstep taking in the surrounding countryside.

Located within a 10-minute walk from the property is a garage incorporating a well stocked Budgens shop and Costa coffee café. The neighbouring village of Stanton St Quintin sees regular activities being ran at the village hall as well having a primary school, a Norman church, and restaurant at Stanton Manor Hotel, open to non-residents, providing a convivial atmosphere for food and drinks. The nearby village of Upper Seagry also has a popular primary school. Both Malmesbury and Chippenham are within a 10-minute drive and have a comprehensive range of facilities plus secondary schooling. The village is conveniently located for easy access to Junction 17 of the M4 motorway providing ideal commuting to London, Bristol, Bath, Reading and Swindon whilst Chippenham railway station has mainline services to London, Wales and the South West. Bristol Airport is a 45-minute drive away.
