AGENTS NOTE

The second floor accommodation is designed to currently comprise a semi self-contained two bedroom apartment but the access is through the main house via the two main staircases but, subject to planning and regulations, this may be suitable for sub-letting or for a multi-generational family unit.

EXTERIOR

This delightful Grade 2 style listed property has a riverside setting on London Road overlooking the River Welland. There are wrought iron railings with a gated access to the front door and lawned gardens to the front with stocked borders. There is a side entrance door giving access to a storage lobby to the left (potentially subject to a flying freehold).

The generous sized town gardens to the rear are predominantly walled and comprise extensive lawn areas, shaped borders, bushes, plants, flowers, trees and shrubs. There is a patio, covered store, shed and green house and a working external WC. Outside lighting.

VEHICULAR ACCESS

From Haverfield Road along a rear driveway there is access to private off-street parking for the property.
