LOCATION

The Burys is located at the bottom of Godalming High Street, easily accessed from the A3100 and all other routes in and out of the town. The property itself over looks the picturesque floodplain meadows, Lammas Lands and is situated within walking distance of the High Street and mainline train station with regular services into both London Waterloo and Portsmouth Harbour.

DESCRIPTION

The available accommodation is located on the 2nd floor of the Waverley Borough Council headquarters' known as 'The Burys'. Access to the office is via a secure reception area and then up to the 2nd floor of the building via communal stairs & lifts. Each wing of the 2nd floor can also be accessed by secondary staircases leading to the external areas of the building on the ground floor.

Depending on how the floor is split, there is communal access to male and female W/C's as well as a kitchen/break out area. If the whole floor is let to a single tenant, then these facilities will be solely demised to the incoming occupier. The office space includes air conditioning, strip florescent lighting and permitter trunking for power supply. There will also be a provision for on-site parking, dependent on the amount of space taken.
