Grade II Listed Commercial and Residential Property

- Formerly used as Public House
- Commercial and Residential on Separate Leases
- Grade II Listed
- Forecourt Car Parking

DESCRIPTION

The property comprises a detached former railway station building of traditional brick construction beneath a pitched slate roof.

The property is Grade II Listed and boasts many original character features.

The building has been split to provide an open plan commercial unit (formally used as a public house) and a two bedroom flat with ground floor open plan living and kitchen space, WC and welcoming reception area. The first floor compromises two bedrooms, bathroom and storage space.

Externally the property benefits from forecourt car parking for 4 vehicles.

LOCATION

The property is situated fronting the Platform at Albrighton Railway Station in the Albrighton area of Wolverhampton.

The Albrighton By Pass (A41) is situated only a few hundred yards from the property allowing convenient access to Wolverhampton City Centre, located 8 miles to the south east.
