Some details

General information

Situated in a highly desirable location within Woodbridge is this immaculately presented three bedroom home.

As you enter the property you are welcomed into a porch with space for coats and shoe storage, this in turn gives access into an impressive open plan living space ideal for modern living and entertaining. The kitchen has been fitted with matching eye and base level units with worktops over, space for a fridge/freezer, plumbing for a washing machine, an integrated oven and hob and gas fired central heating boiler. The dining area has space for a dining table, sofa and benefits from a venation blind fitted to the window overlooking the front. This room leads onto the sitting room with stairs rising to the first floor, understair storage cupboard with space and plumbing for a tumble dryer and there is a door to the rear garden.

Stair rise to the first floor landing which in turn gives access to all three bedrooms, family bathroom and the separate W.C.
