“The space in this home has been ideal. We’ve been able to entertain friends and community from across the world.”

Cranleigh House started life as a Rectory in 1875. Over the more recent years, it was a Bed and Breakfast. However, today we find this stunning property which has been fully renovated to created an exceptional spacious home.

The current owners wanted a home which could accommodate a plentiful amount of friends and family - for which the outcome has been perfect.

The flow of the house works beautifully with a spacious sitting room which opens through to the fine dining room- perfect for large gatherings, with the current owners having played host to four family weddings here.

If you want to escape the bustle of friends and family you can hide away in the snug or if it's work from home - there is a study ideal for this.

Furthermore, if you really don't want to be found, there is a great cellar; which asides a game of hide and seek is perfect for housing your wine. Our clients have used it to host cheese and wine parties.

The kitchen has been designed for day-to-day living as well as entertaining a host of guests. The kitchen is south facing, along with the dining area and lounge, meaning that all benefit from glorious natural light.

There should be no arguing on sleeping arrangements in this family home. The first floor accommodation has four en-suite bedrooms and a laundry room too. Both bedrooms one and two benefit from natural sunlight, both being south facing.

The top floor makes an ideal children's floor with a games room, four further bedrooms and three en-suite toilets.

“This has been an excellent family home.”

The rooms have views to the front you would find hard not to enjoy; semi-undulating countryside forever changing over the seasons.

A grand entrance, with its brick pillars and gates, draws you along the sweeping gravelled driveway with plenty of parking.

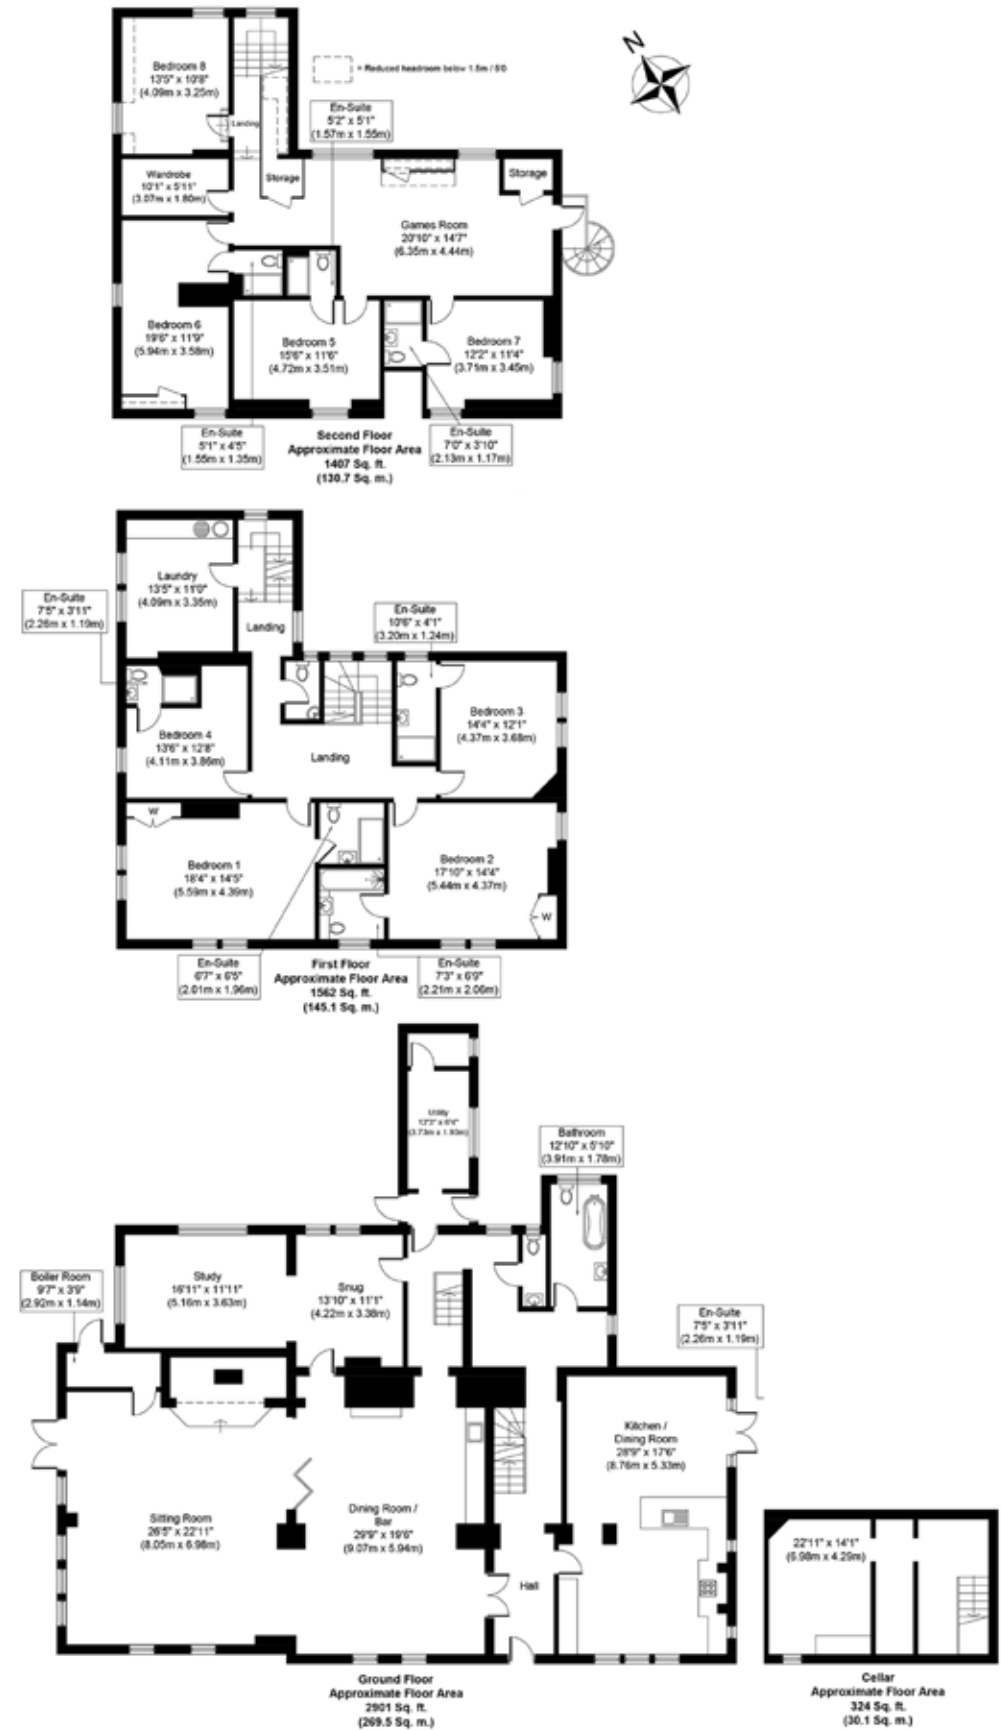

Lawn to the front and side with a mature boundary laurel hedge and post and rail fencing.

A range of specimen trees and block weave terrace to the side with access from the kitchen.

To the rear there is a small covered area with a brick well. Plenty of room to erect a cart lodge/garaging if required, for which our clients have advised planning permission has recently been acquired.

“Cranleigh House was formerly a Victorian rectory.”

ALL THE REASONS

Upton

IN NORFOLK
IS THE PLACE TO CALL HOME

Meaning “higher farm/ settlement”, Upton is a village located on the River Bure with the Broads of Norfolk.

The village has a local pub at the centre of it, The White Horse Inn. The pub has varied food choices along with event nights, such as quizzes. The pub also has a village store, but for those wanting a possibly wider selection, the town of Acle is only a five minute car journey.

Upton is only around a 13 mile drive to the centre of Norwich, roughly 20 minutes to drive.

The ancient city of Norwich has been home to writers, radicals and fiercely independent spirits for over a thousand years, and today continues in its legacy as an enclave of culture and creativity. It’s perfectly preserved medieval streets are home to a thriving community of small businesses, a vibrant food scene and an established arts culture. It is also a gateway to a county that continues to inspire people with its unspoilt landscapes, open spaces and big skies.

Named as one of the best places to live in 2021, Norwich lies approximately 20 miles from the coast at the confluence of the River Yare and the River Wensum, the latter still bending its way through the heart of the city. In the 11th Century, Norwich was the second largest city in the country, and today is still the UK’s most complete medieval city. Strolling through the historic cobbled streets of Elm Hill, whatever the season, the Tudor architecture retains its character and beauty. Laced with merchant’s houses, thatching, individual homes, speciality shops and small cafes, you’ll be led toward the 1,000-year-old Norwich Cathedral.

To the north of the city the University of East Anglia is a remarkable example of brutalist architecture, and the campus is also home to the Sainsbury centre, a permanent collection of modern and ethnographic art, gifted by the Sainsbury family.
