The Covent Garden Estate is a globally recognised destination situated in London's West End, within striking distance of Soho, Oxford Street and the South Bank.

Although in the heart of this vibrant part of central London, the Estate is pedestrianised for 20 hours a day, making it a clean, safe and inviting environment in which to live.

This world class destination is proactively managed with all buildings on the Estate maintained to the highest standards, both internally and externally, with particular care and attention given to public realm and greening.

This is all supported by an on-site team of cleaners, gardeners and 24 hour a day security, while the facilities and property management teams are also based on The Estate.
