Our vendor says... We love that the property is so close to countryside both around the village and a short drive away in the nearby Mendip Hills. Weston's beaches are also in close proximity, especially Uphill which is just a few miles away.

Being south facing, the rear garden is great for relaxing in the sun - we've really enjoyed it throughout the summer. The solar panels to the south facing elevation of the roof are a real benefit, providing an income for any electricity that is exported.

Banwell has a village feel but is within easy reach of Weston which has plenty of supermarkets and other amenities. Proximity to the M5 and A38 means for easy commuting with Bristol Airport a short 20-minute drive.

The property benefits fibre to the property broadband providing a connection of up to 900Mbps which is excellent for busy families and those needing to work from home.

We have noticed... Generous proportions and a larger than expected south facing garden set in a lovely semi-rural position.
