The Property

Entering the door to the rear of the property takes you into the kitchen which is fitted with oak-cupboards, a ceramic hob and space for a cooker, there's also plumbing for a dishwasher and a washing machine and an under stair store cupboard. A door leads into the original part of the 17c cottage and provides a generous reception room with a gas 'wood-burning style' stove and a dining area. There is a further room used as a snug with an open fireplace and to the rear a down-stairs bedroom. To the rear is a hallway which can be accessed via the kitchen and the sitting room with a door to the rear garden and a useful shower room fitted with a shower, w.c. and hand basin.

A staircase leads to the first floor landing which boasts attractive exposed stud-work, airing cupboard and a walk-in wardrobe. There are two good sized double bedrooms and the master has a dressing room leading off. There is also a large bathroom fitted with a bath, w.c. and hand basin. This well maintained property benefits from double glazing and has gas Central heating, whilst retaining much of its character.

Gardens and Grounds

An outstanding feature of this wonderful property are the gardens, which can be accessed via pathways on many levels, planted with mature trees and shrubs and with areas to sit and enjoys views over the village to the front, field views to the rear and to the side of heath land know as 'Holton pits'. Immediately to the rear of the property is an attractive paved and shingled terraced area retained by brick wall and trellis with climbers and shrubs. Steps and paths lead to the rear where there is a recently constructed large timber workshop/studio. The rear boundary backs onto open fields. To the side of the house is a further enclosed area of garden with a small pond and an area to sit and enjoy the views and peace. There are parking areas to each side of the house, one of which leads to the detached garage.

Location

The property is located in the edge of the village of Holton which is a mile from the market town of Halesworth. Halesworth provides many independent shops, range of schools, public houses, restaurants, doctors, vets and a supermarket. It has a thriving centre of arts for the community called 'The Cut' which is close by and used as a theatre, cinema, exhibitions and workshops. Within close walking distance is a train station with services to London Liverpool Street via Ipswich. The unspoilt heritage coastline of Suffolk with the lovely beaches of Southwold and Walberswick are a 20 minute drive away.
