Location and local amenities

On the edge of a traditional Pennine market town, Stubley Meadows occupies a fantastic semi-rural yet highly-accessible position just off the A58.

Surrounded by picturesque countryside, Littleborough is a door to rural Lancashire and the Pennine hills beyond. The town centre itself is a conservation area and is packed full of independent shops, boutiques, cafés, pubs and restaurants, with a selection of grocery stores and small supermarkets, banks and a post office.

Most of the larger superstore brands are within a 10-15 minute drive of the town, along with Rochdale town centre which is quarter-of-an-hour away by car or seven minutes by direct train.

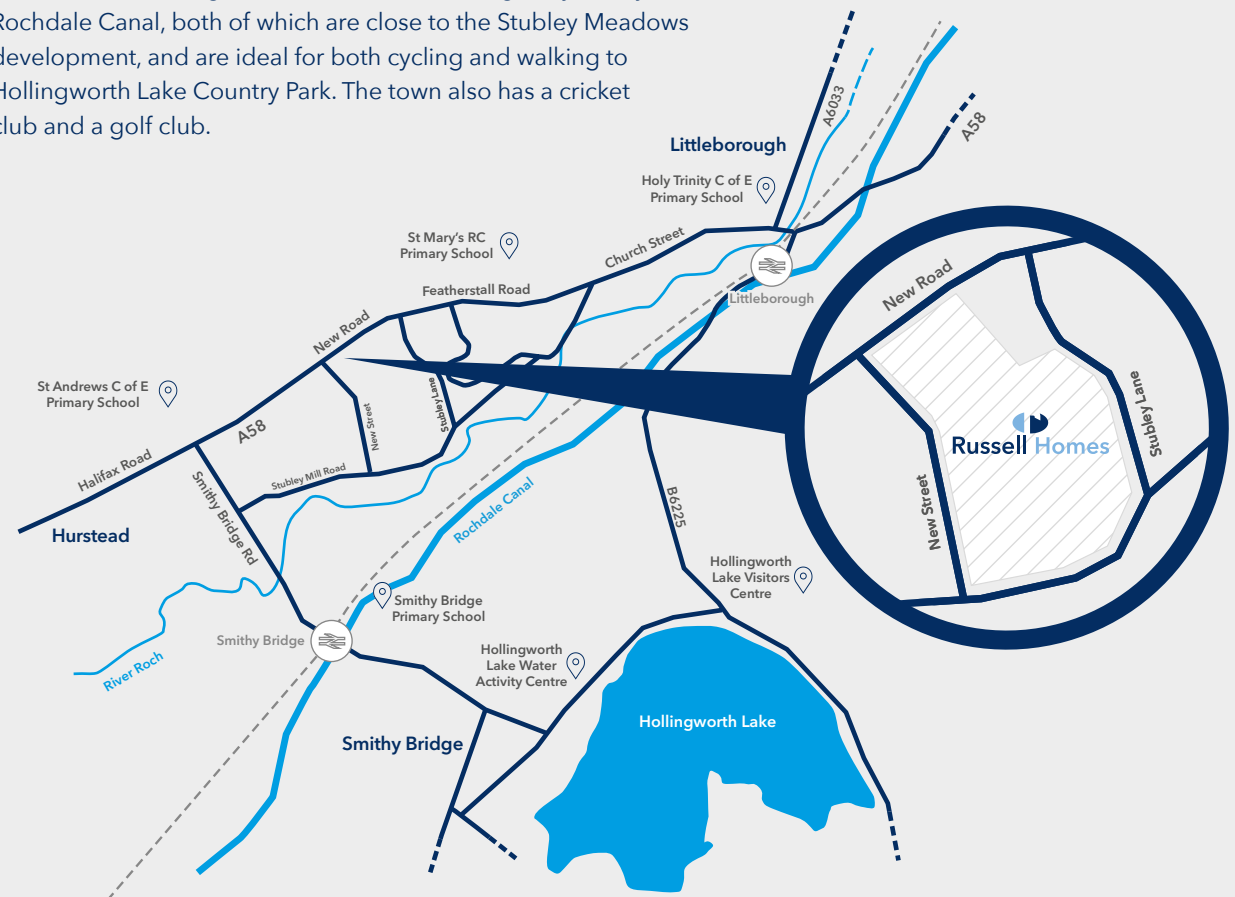

Manchester city centre is accessible from both local train stations, in just 19 minutes from Smithy Bridge - which is itself a 12 minute walk from the development - or 22 minutes from Littleborough via the half-hourly service to Victoria Station. Both also offer a direct train to Leeds which takes a little over an hour.

There are no less than five primary schools near to Stubley Meadows, none more than a 15 minute walk or five minute drive away. Among them are a variety of faith and local authority options, rated from Good to Outstanding. A broad selection of high schools can be found five miles away in Rochdale, with good bus services available.

Children and families are well catered for in Littleborough, with the Green Flag Hare Hill Park boasting two play areas, a skate park, playing fields, sports pitches, a bowling green, some delightful formal gardens and an historic bandstand to boot, with the local Friends Group staging community events throughout the year. And the nearby Littleborough Library offers a range of activities for children and older people throughout the week.

The town also has a sports centre with gym, studio and outdoor multi-sports area, while there are swimming pools, soft play, a bowling alley, and a climbing centre in Rochdale.

The area is home to a major tourist attraction in Hollingworth Lake, a man-made canal reservoir where locals and visitors alike enjoy a vast range of watersports and leisure activities. There is a sailing club, rowing club, play area, country park and numerous lakeside eateries. Littleborough is also on the Three Bridges Cycleway and Rochdale Canal, both of which are close to the Stubley Meadows development, and are ideal for both cycling and walking to Hollingworth Lake Country Park. The town also has a cricket club and a golf club.

A great location for country living, close to local amenities and with excellent transport links.
