Description

A self contained ground and lower ground floor office/showroom in the heart of Shoreditch with a very valuable showroom/glazed return frontage – offering the occupier a fantastic branding opportunity on a very busy street.

The premises are well fitted including glazed meeting rooms on the ground floor along with a large client/entertaining kitchen. A large open staircase to the front of the space allows natural light to the lower ground floor, which has good ceiling height and provides voluminous open plan workspace with newly fitted flooring and further kitchen and wc/shower facilities.

Location

Occupying a prime position on Paul Street just a stones throw from the food market stalls at Leonard Circus and being a short walk to Old Street and Liverpool Street stations.

An area full of buzz and creativity, the bars and restaurants that Shoreditch is well known for are literally on the doorstep.
