Louise Oliver Properties is delighted to present a well presented three bedroom semi-detached property, located to the popular Berkeley area of Scunthorpe, situated within walking distance of a wide range of amenities, with a short distance on road from both the town centre and motorway links including M18 & M180.

The property briefly comprises, to the ground floor an open plan living space featuring large sitting room, and rear aspect dining area, with access to both the lounge and rear garden via French uPVC double doors. The kitchen comprises wall and base units to the surround providing ample storage with the gas combi boiler located. A large utility is situated adjacent to the kitchen, featuring additional wall storage units, laminate worktops throughout, and fitted storage for white goods, access to the rear garden is available via uPVC door.

The first floor comprises three well proportioned bedrooms, featuring two double bedrooms and a third large single bedroom comprising integral single wardrobe and built in cabin bed. Additionally a separate bathroom and WC are located.

Externally the property benefits from a low maintenance front garden, with open aspect views across rural farmland, a large paved driveway allows off road parking for multiple vehicles, and access to the integral single garage.

The rear south facing garden benefits from decking area, and fixed gazebo, with solid wood roof, and detachable slatted wood panels to the surround, creating a great entertainment space throughout the changing seasons. Located to the rear of the garden is a large workshop, with single glazed windows and uPVC French doors to access, the workshop benefits, mains power, fixed lighting and fixed shelving throughout.

The location is popular for its short distance to good local schools, ranging from nursery to secondary education. On foot the property is accessible to a range of local amenities including, butchers and bakery, newsagent and post office, beauticians and doctors surgery, and 24 hour petrol station. Both Kingsway nature reserve and Atkins warren are a short walking distance from the property, in addition Gallagher and Skippingdale retail parks are both accessible by foot. The property is ideally situated for commuters, with national motorway links nearby.
