OFFERS INVITED AROUND £325,000

Unique opportunity to purchase this well presented and refurbished former chapel
With many original features intact
Oak flooring, 2 wood burning stoves and gas central heating.
Mainly all upvc windows
Fully furnished.

This former chapel has been lovingly and expensively restored by the present owners retaining all its original features but with the benefit of re roofing, restoring the organ which is still in working order, fitting 2 bathrooms, oak flooring, complete wiring & the addition of a professional fire alarm system. There is a small amount of outside space to the front and side with decked terrace for al fresco dining and small lawn with mature shrubs and hedging and a separate garden located at the rear with parking. The chapel is gas centrally heated with 2 wood burning stoves upvc double glazing on the lower and ground floor levels. It has featured in an article on Wales online walesonline.co.uk/lifestyle/welsh-homes/chapel-conversion-pulpit-organ-pews-17062295. The chapel would benefit from some further work but is completely habitable.

Tywyn is a delightful coastal town on the shores of Cardigan Bay.
