Description

Laystall House has been spectacularly refurbished providing modern office space behind a retained façade.

A number of the original warehouse features have been preserved and combined with exposed services and modern fittings blending the old and new seamlessly.

The lower ground floor offers fully fitted, plug and play accommodation with fibre connectivity.

Location

Located within a prime Clerkenwell position, Laystall House offers unique, high quality floor space ideally suited to tech and creative industries.

The building benefits from excellent transport connectivity; Farringdon Station is just a 7-minute walk away, offering access to the Elizabeth Line, Crossrail, Circle, Metropolitan and the Hammersmith & City lines and Chancery Lane located 8 minutes away granting access to the Central Line.

Furthermore, Leather lane food market starts around the corner from Laystall House, providing a wide range of lunch options to occupiers.
