DESCRIPTION

Phoenix Works is a heritage former pottery work dating back to 1881, with a featured bottle kiln and courtyard, in a site area of 0.356 acres. Full planning consent has been granted 16th September 2024 for the conversion to 25no residential dwellings and 2no retail units (Planning Ref: 70591/FUL) and Listed Building Consent (Planning Ref: 70652/LBC). The residential dwellings consist of:

- 10 x 1 bedroom
- 14 x 2 bedroom
- 1 x 3 bedroom
- 2 x retail units (Use Class E(a)) fronting King Street.

Further details are available via Stoke-on-Trent City Council Planning Portal.

Internally, the buildings are predominantly open plan with natural light on all elevations. The front three storey building has already undergone restoration including repointing, new full glazed doors, window restoration, ground floor rendered and roof restoration. The original bottle kiln forms part of the development with the upper floors forming a bespoke feature of Residential Unit 18.

TENURE

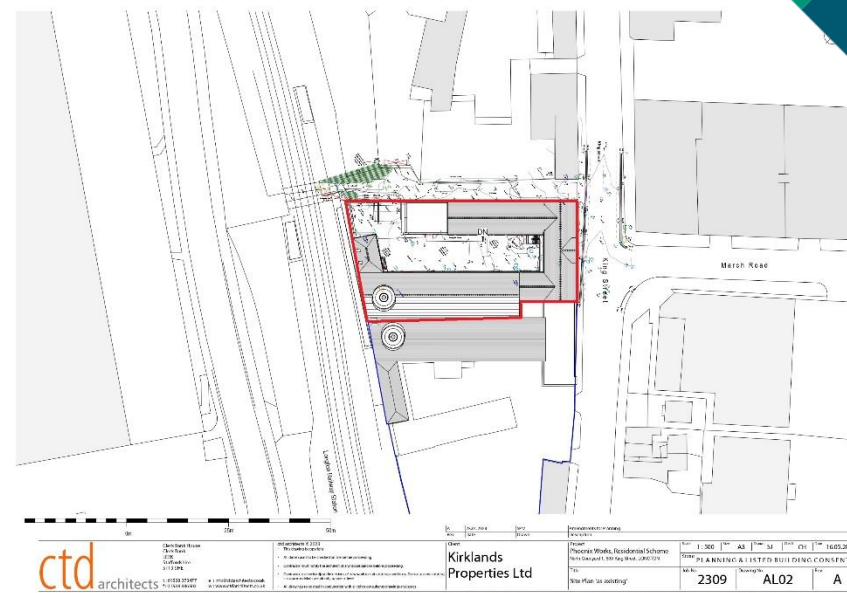

Freehold with vacant possession.

PRICE

£575,000. The property is currently VAT elected, although interested parties should take their own advice regards an option to waiver.

RATING ASSESSMENT

There are several business rates assessments connected with the building. We understand nil rates are payable for the vacant property with Grade II Listing. We would recommend interested parties satisfy themselves and make further enquiries to the Local Rating Authority (Stoke-on-Trent City Council).
