Location

Holt is a busy former market town situated in the centre of north Norfolk, an area considered by many as one of England's finest. It is home to the famous Gresham's School and is a very popular destination for holidaymakers, second home owners and the retired. The town is one of North Norfolk's 'Principal Settlements' and as such is a primary retail destination with a strong collection of both local and national retailers. Demand for commercial property in Holt has remained strong for over a decade with few vacancies throughout recent economic uncertainties. Holt has a catchment population of about 13,400 with a wider catchment area reaching from Cromer and Overstrand to the east, Melton Constable and Thursford to the west and Saxthorpe to the south of almost 45,000 residents. The town lies less than 5 miles from the scenic coastal villages of Blakeney and Cley-next-the-Sea along the coastal Area of Outstanding Natural Beauty while the cathedral city of Norwich, with its airport and frequent rail service to London Liverpool Street, is only 23 miles to the south.
