

Old Parsonage Farmhouse

Old Parsonage Farmhouse

Beetham, Milnthorpe, Cumbria LA7 7AL

A beautifully renovated and restored Grade II listed farmhouse with origins dating back to the seventeenth century and being one of the oldest in the region. Located in the beautiful Cumbria village of Beetham this superb detached farmhouse offers extremely comfortable, well balanced accommodation that includes five double bedrooms, three bathrooms and three reception rooms, perfect for families to enjoy and entertain.

The nature of the refurbishment is excellent and allows the original character to shine through, blending seamlessly with the more contemporary finish in particular the reception hall and snug give a real sense of history with the panelled walls and yet the recently added garden room doesn't seem out of place. Outside are various outbuildings including a splendid gym/hobby room together with ample parking in the courtyard. To complete the picture are well tended south facing, landscaped gardens that offer privacy and seclusion. All in all a fabulous example of a thoughtfully and expertly renovated home, now ready to view and buy!
