Description

The office space is available on the ground floor of a period Grade II listed building. The office space provides perimeter trucking and suspended ceilings with good natural light throughout.

The space also benefits from a modern kitchen, demised shower and shared outdoor courtyard.

Location

The building is located on John Street at its intersection with Doughty Mews, just south of Coram's Fields. The area is well connected as nearby stations include Holborn, Russell Square, and King's Cross St. Pancras.

A wealth of eating and drinking establishments on nearby Lamb's Conduit Street and The Brunswick Centre make it a popular office location.
