LOCATION

The property is prominently located fronting onto Sandford Avenue in the centre of the sought after town of Church Stretton. The ground floor shop unit and the residential accommodation benefit from separate pedestrian access from Sandford Avenue.

The property benefits from proximity to all local amenities. Church Stretton located in South Shropshire can claim to be one of the most beautifully situated towns in England being sat at the foot of the Stretton Hills and often affectionately known as Little Switzerland. The town lies adjacent to the A49 Trunk Road midway between the towns of Shrewsbury, the county town of Shropshire, being 13 miles to the north and Ludlow being 15 miles to the south.

The A49 provides access to the national road network via the M54 to the north. The town due to the Stretton Hills is a popular tourist town particularly for walkers and it offers a thriving community with public houses, restaurants and an excellent range of independent shops. The town had a population of 4,671.

DESCRIPTION

The substantial property is arranged over part three, part two and part single storeys with a basement area to provide a self contained (tenanted) ground floor lock up shop unit within part of the ground and the basement and an attractive very well presented self contained 3 bedroomed residential town house arranged over part of the ground and the first floor and second floors of the property. The property has been sympathetically refurbished by the existing owners and this has included the construction of an impressive first floor balcony area at the rear of the property.

The shop unit provides a Total Net Sales Area of approximately 1,070 ft sq (99.54 m sq) with ancillary accommodation and welfare facilities, over part of the ground floor and the basement. It has a glazed shop frontage front onto Sandford Avenue and is currently let (please see tenure section) and income producing and provides an ideal investment return for any purchaser who wants to live in the property above.

The residential town house is spacious and benefits from a wealth of attractive features that can only be appreciated via an inspection of the property and has been sympathetically refurbished and improved by the vendors.

The property provides flexible 3 bedroomed accommodation arranged over part of the ground floor and first floor and second floors. Benefiting from a gas fired central heating system and an attractive first floor balcony area as well as a pleasant rear garden area with outbuildings. The town house has the potential to be separated into two separate flats and there is an existing planning consent in place for a loft conversion to create further residential accommodation.
