Set amidst beautiful coastal countryside, Kirkcudbright enjoys a sheltered position in the estuary of the River Dee on the north Solway shore. Established as a Royal Burgh in 1455, Kirkcudbright has always been supported by a busy fishing trade. The marina is popular and offers one of the safest anchorages on the north Solway coast. Behind the harbour, the streets have housed generations of creative talents. Kirkcudbright's historical connections and its present flourishing colony of artists have led to Kirkcudbright being called "The Artist's Town". The area in general offers a quiet and relaxing atmosphere, safe country roads and stunning coastal landscapes.
