Location

Affectionately known as Cally Road by locals, Caledonian Road's business community is growing with start-ups and established enterprises alike taking occupation in the district, with easy access into central London via the Piccadilly line and Overground network. The quarter's Victorian commercial heritage lends a warehouse aesthetic to the design of fashionable after-work venues like The Depot and The Pleasance, in contrast to the gleaming modernity of Arsenal's Emirates Stadium. Just to the north of Kings Cross spectacular regeneration zone, Cally Yard is the edgy and aspiring younger sibling to smooth-suited Upper Street.

Description

Cally Yard's convergence of minds, makers, founders and creators will create a dynamic hub in the continuing regeneration of Caledonian Road, which began life as a nineteenth century toll road developing a culture of light industry in the wake of the new railways.

Our connected, collaborative and flexible new office space will channel Cally Road's existing sense of community and commerce, while injecting new energy for the future. We want to foster innovation that will boost the wellbeing of the community as a whole, as well as that of your business.

This high quality, ultra-flexible spaces can be perfectly tailored to your specific business needs. The Studio is available to buy or rent now.

Whether you're a creative, a maker, small or large business, studio or agency, Cally Yard can be tailored to your dream workspace solution. It's a modular, dynamic opportunity for savvy entrepreneurs, businesses and twenty-first century start-ups.

Be one of the visionaries to ride the first wave of Caledonian Road's regeneration and claim your piece of London.
