6 Augusta Gardens, Folkestone

STUNNING THREE BEDROOM APARTMENT IN FOLKESTONE'S STYLISH WEST END BACKING ON TO COMMUNAL GARDENS! Miles & Barr are delighted to market this immaculate property which perfectly blends the properties original period features with modern day living. The property is finished to a high standard throughout and ready for someone to move in and enjoy straight away as well as being ready made for anyone working from home. Augusta Gardens is a highly sort after residential street made up of grand Victorian buildings each unique to the next and benefits from a large communal garden with lawn and established trees. It is ideally situated just a moments walk to the town centre & station plus similar distance to the seafront. Inside the accommodation is arranged around a large central hallway. To the rear, over looking the gardens is the open plan living space with original fireplace and adjacent kitchen which is well equipped with range of integrated appliances. There are three bedrooms, two large doubles with original features and a third bedroom which is currently used as a home studio but would make a great office. To complete the picture of this beautiful home there is a modern family bathroom. For further details or to arrange a viewing call sole agents Miles & Barr.
