Detached former farmhouse set in landscaped gardens and elevated grounds extending to 4.21 acres
 Approximately 3 miles from Aberdovey
 Adjacent to the Dyfi estuary
 Currently a holiday let
 Separate owners accommodation with calor gas under floor heating
 Private water and drainage

This former farmhouse is situated outside the village of Aberdovey adjacent to the Dyfi estuary with partial estuary views. Currently a successful holiday let and comprising well fitted kitchen, dining room open to lounge, conservatory and snug on the ground floor with 3 double bedrooms, 2 with en-suites plus bathroom on the 1st floor and access to an elevated decked area to enjoy the views. There is a recently built detached 1 bedroom annexe currently providing owner accommodation and garage storage. The grounds are landscaped with many tropical plants and stretch to 4.21 acres of elevated woodland offering many seating areas. There is parking for several vehicles. The farmhouse has electric under floor heating throughout and wood double glazed windows. The property has private spring water and septic tank drainage. Across the road is access to the estuary and a large expanse of sand at low tide accessed via a footpath. The Welsh coastal path is located on the hill behind the house.

Aberdovey is well known for its mild climate, sandy beaches and magnificent surrounding countryside. Sailing and all water sports are very popular and Aberdovey Yacht Club is in the centre of the village. For golfing enthusiasts there is Aberdovey Golf Club a championship course nearby. There is also a railway station which together with well maintained trunk roads provides easy access with the West Midlands within 2 hours travelling distance. Just over three miles away you have the coastal resort of Tywyn with a variety of shops, cinema, leisure centre, primary and high schools, cottage hospital and promenade.
