The owner says "We have lived here in Millers Ley for 27 years, with four young boys at the time the house has undergone many changes. We have extended the property extensively to give us a comfortable living space. The fact we have two bathrooms was always helpful in the mornings! With several good schools nearby we could enjoy walking rather than having to take the car. The garden allowed plenty of room for football games, trampolines and even an above ground swimming pool. The brand new kitchen is big enough for family cooking and the lounge is now filled with grandchildren."
