Most Appealing Ground Floor Flat Requiring Upgrading And Decoration

Most appealing dual-facing ground floor flat pleasantly located in the fashionable Leith district within walking distance of a wide variety of excellent amenities and transport links.

This good sized home offers well-proportioned living space convenient in layout which would make an excellent first purchase or buy to let investment. The generous interior comprises: hall, lounge with doors to enclosed rear garden, fitted kitchen with appliances and access to enclosed front garden, two comfortable bedrooms and bathroom. While some upgrading and decoration is now required, comfort is assured by means of gas central heating complemented by the installation of double-glazed windows. The property is set within easily maintained private gardens, the front enclosed garden also providing off-street parking. An entryphone system provides security to the mutual stairway with shared drying cupboard and access to a communal garden area.

Note: No warranty will be provided for appliances, central heating or systems.
