RETIREMENT

Luxury retirement apartments, wonderfully located

MACC Retirement is proud to present Lovekin Gate, a select collection of 12 luxurious two-bedroom retirement apartments exclusively for the over 55s, nestled within the grounds of Blossomfield Park, an exciting new multi-generational development in Solihull.

Award-winning PCPT Architects has achieved perfect synergy between modern building design and the heritage of Lovekin Gate's unique setting, complete with its landmark Grade II listed building and beautiful mature gardens.

Modern and maintenance-free, our spacious, high-specification private apartments are safe and secure – stress-free havens for those ready to downsize and make life a little easier or perfectly suited for active, 'lock up and leave' retirement lifestyles.

Lovekin Gate is only minutes away from historic Solihull town centre, offering excellent local shops, eateries, arts and recreation amenities and great transport links throughout the Midlands and beyond.

Luxury sets Lovekin Gate apart

Each generously-proportioned two-bedroom apartment offers stunning views, plenty of natural light and a range of options on leading brand fixtures and fittings so you can personalise your home.

Luxury apartments start from £500,000.

A range of optional services – easily accessible now, or later in life, even if just a little help with cleaning, shopping or cooking – may be purchased to suit.

And with award-winning luxury care services located on-site, you can live today to the full, safe in the knowledge that you are future-proofing ‘tomorrow’, with convenient access to any extra support that may be needed in years to come.

A sense of community

With stunning communal spaces inside and out and a busy events and activities calendar, Lovekin Gate residents can look forward to fun, friendships and an active social scene, with as much or as little involvement as they wish. While there's always someone to chat to over a coffee, there's no compromise to privacy and independence.

For the exclusive use of Blossomfield Park residents, superb amenities include:

- Library
- Lounge Area
- Business Hub – hotdesking and meeting spaces
- WiFi
- Gym
- Landscaped grounds
- Residents and visitor parking
- State-of-the-art security
