52 Dunmorlie Street, Walker, Newcastle upon Tyne

£ 135,000

Situated on Dunmorlie Street, this 4 / 5 bedroom semi-detached house would make for the ideal family home.

The first floor consists of a spacious living room, a family sized dining room, a small compact kitchen and small bedroom. The living room is the first door to the right from the entrance hall this large room would make ideal for a family room, great to spend the evenings relaxing watching all your favourite programmes. The large window to the front allows in a lot of natural light. The second room on the right of the entrance is the dining room. Great room for hosting diner parties or a nice quiet family meal. The kitchen is accessed via the dining room; is a galley style kitchen which gives you access to the rear garden via a wooden door. The small bedroom is at the end of the entrance hall, this would make a great small office / study room. The rear garden is very private as it has a 6ft large fence all around. You can get to the garden via a side access; the large patio space would make perfect for some lovely garden furniture to kick up and relax through the summer.

On the first floor there is 4 doors giving entry to 4 bedrooms. The largest bedroom is the only room which gives access to the bathroom. This room could be used for a reception area or another family type room. The master bedroom is to the front of the property, this spacious room is well light via a large window overlooking the neighbourhood. The second bedroom is to the rear of the property, it's small and compact but plenty of space for a single room. The last bedroom is to the front of the property, again this is small and compact but still plenty space for a single room. The family bathroom is actually a wet room, there is a walk in shower, toilet and a hand basin.
