Originally two charming cottages dating back over 150 years, Long Furlong House now offers a grand total of almost 3,300 sq. ft. of immaculately presented accommodation spread across two floors. The property is in excellent condition throughout, offering a blank canvas for a potential purchaser to extend, enlarge and improve (subject to planning permission).

The property benefits from several environmentally friendly features, including 17 solar panels on the rear roof, storage battery and electric car charger.

Families will appreciate the excellent selection of top-rated schools in the area, including Abingdon School, The Manor, Chandlings, Our Lady's Abingdon and St. Helen and St. Katharine's.

Sunningwell, Oxfordshire

Sunningwell is widely regarded as one of Oxfordshire's most sought-after villages, with unspoilt countryside and an array of amenities to suit all tastes. The village boasts a highly regarded public house, The Flowing Well, a CofE primary school, an art school, and a picturesque pond in the centre.

For daily essentials, the market town of Abingdon-on-Thames is only a couple of miles away and offers a weekly market, shops, restaurants and a Waitrose supermarket.

For those needing to travel further afield, the A34 is easily accessible and offers easy links to Oxford and Newbury. The nearby Oxford train station provides direct trains to London, Birmingham, and beyond.

Long Furlong House truly offers a rare opportunity to acquire an exemplary property in one of Oxfordshire's most desirable locations.
