What Our Vendor Loves

Our client has owned this property since it was first finished in 2007 and the care and love bestowed on it since then will be clear to any would be buyers. This is highlighted by the quality of finish of the recent redecoration. The location of the flat first appealed as Frome town centre is within easy reach on foot and there are some beautiful routes, particularly via Rodden Meadow or along the river bank to Willow Vale. Since living in the property other features have come to be important and have set this home apart from others. The Juliet balcony from the living room provides not only aesthetic benefits, but in the Summer can be opened up to allow the breeze and fresh air in; particularly noteworthy when working from home. Overall this is a light and airy flat will be missed when pastures new are found.
