McFarlane are pleased to offer to the market in the ever-popular location of Rodbourne Cheney this extended 1930's three-bedroom semi-detached family home. The property does require elements of refurbishment but offers fantastic scope and potential. With features throughout, giving a gentle nod to its history, these specific properties are always extremely desirable for both their internal and external space. The spacious living accommodation allows a flexible approach to dining and entertaining with an extended kitchen / breakfast room and impressive living room complete with feature bay window. Upstairs offers three bedrooms which have all been tastefully decorated and beautiful new doors fitted, as well as the beautifully chosen family shower room. Outside speaks for itself, large and with some beautifully smelling flowers, which leads to the fantastic, larger than average garage to the rear. Viewings are highly recommended.
