beautiful countryside

Mansfield

Mansfield is Nottinghamshire's largest market town, with a rich history dating back to Roman times. The town gained its Royal Charter from Henry 111 in 1227 and still has a thriving market which is open 5 days a week.

The town centre offers a large modern shopping centre and a wide range of national and independent shops. The nearest shopping centre and Sainsbury's supermarket is just a couple of minutes away from High Oakham Ridge.

For those coming to High Oakham Ridge with young children, High Oakham Primary School is just a short walk away. Rated "good" in the latest Ofsted report, it was praised for its extremely polite and friendly pupils. The site also includes the Little Acorns Pre-School. Mansfield offers a range of secondary schools, colleges and a campus for the Nottingham Trent University.

The town has a wide choice of doctor's surgeries and is home to both the Mansfield Community Hospital and The King's Mill Hospital.

Mansfield has a successful professional football club, nicknamed The Stags and the town is also home to a wide range of sporting facilities and a number of nature reserves.

Around and about

Mansfield is surrounded by beautiful countryside and places of interest. Sherwood Forest, which attracts visitors from all over the world is right on the doorstep and is the perfect place for a day out. Newstead Abbey, the former home of Lord Byron and Hardwick Hall are both just a short drive from High Oakham Ridge.

Nottingham is around 12 miles to the south of Mansfield. A major sporting centre, it is home to both Nottingham Forest and Notts County, as well as the National Ice Centre, the Holme Pierrepont National Watersports Centre and the Trent Bridge Cricket Ground.

Mansfield Railway Station is just over a mile from the development and offers regular services to both Nottingham and Worksop. The A38 is just minutes away and gives quick access to Junction 28 of the M1. For travel north, Junction 29 of the M1 is just over 8 miles away.

For travel further afield, East Midlands Airport is typically around 30 to 45 minutes away, Birmingham International Airport is around an hour away and Manchester less than an hour and a half. But with wonderful views from home and so much to do nearby, you might just want to stay at High Oakham Ridge.
