Whatmore Court Farm is a delightful small country estate with an impressive farmhouse set in an idyllic rural location, with the benefit of an annexe, a three bed cottage, useful range of outbuildings and farm buildings, all set within around 96.18 acres. Whatmore Court is a period brick farmhouse offering exceptional proportions and accommodation throughout. Entrance to the ground floor accommodation is via a delightful orangery/garden room providing summer dining and leading through to the wonderfully spacious kitchen/breakfast room which is fitted with handmade pine and oak units with a double Belfast sink and a traditional four-oven AGA. The room offers superb proportions allowing ample space for informal dining in front of the wood burning stove. Steps lead up from the kitchen to the study which enjoys a double aspect with wonderful views and has a connecting door through to the Duck Cottage Annexe. The drawing room is a particularly attractive and well-proportioned room with a high ceiling with exposed beams, a large inglenook fireplace, a bay window with views over the garden and a French door opening out to the gardens. The dining room has exposed beams and houses the impressive staircase. A utility room offers storage and a wash basin and adjacent is a useful pantry. The boot room has a decorative sky light and a door out to the rear gardens. The indoor pool room has a vaulted ceiling with exposed beams and a 6.85m, wave swimming pool (currently not in use) and French doors out to the gardens. Leading off the pool room is an adjacent boiler/pump room.

On the first floor, the principal bedroom is an exceptionally proportioned room with a double aspect enjoying views over the gardens and countryside beyond and has a well-equipped en-suite bathroom. There is another large double bedroom on the first floor and a family bathroom. On the second floor, there are three further double bedrooms and a family bathroom.

Two barn conversions overlook the courtyard gardens including the Annexe (Duck Cottage) and Drake Cottage. Duck Cottage comprises kitchen/dining room, sitting room, stairs to landing (connecting door to farm house), one double bedroom and a bathroom. Drake Cottage also known as Whatmore Court Cottage comprises sun room/boot room, kitchen/dining room, sitting room, three bedrooms and a bathroom. The cottage and annexe are ideal for AST's, holiday letting or multi generation living.

Outside

The gardens surrounding Whatmore Court are particularly attractive and amidst which the former courtyard has been sympathetically landscaped to create a most pleasant space ideal for seasonal al-fresco dining and entertaining, with paths, terraces and water features. The front gardens are mainly laid to lawn with some mature trees, well stocked herbaceous borders and shrubbery throughout and a pretty duck pond. Around the gardens are various garden stores and a green house. The property benefits from extensive cellarage accessed from an external door providing ample storage.

Outbuildings

Attached to the house is a useful workshop/garden store and boiler room with mezzanine storage. Overlooking the courtyard gardens with access off the separate farm drive are two traditional brick ranges including a garage with open fronted garden store and dog kenneling on one side and a block of stabling with a shoot room and storage and a craft workshop extension on the other with a brick wainhouse beyond.

The steel framed farm buildings are approached off the farm drive and include a Mifflin cattle shed (60' x 60') with raised central feed passage, a J Ruck fodder barn (60' x 45') and attached to the rear of the stable block is a lean-to extension forming grain and implement storage.

The Land

Encircling the farmstead on three sides are a prime arable field and two grazing fields which all have access from the farm drive. Adjoining the grassland is a belt of woodland with a stream feeding into a duck pool and flowing on down to the Padgebrook. Within the land is a 15m domestic wind turbine (currently out of use)..

Lot 2 - Arable and Pasture Land - About 40.97 acres (16.58 hectares)

A useful ring-fenced block of two excellent arable fields and a grazing field with a spring fed water supply. Within and adjoining the grass field are parcels of young woodland with a duck pool and the sloping topography provides the potential for some high pheasants as well as offering exceptional views across the farm.

Lot 3 - Arable Land and Woodland - About 22.66 acres (9.17 hectares)

Two productive arable fields currently in a short-term high energy grass rotation with road frontage, access to stream water and with an adjoining belt of mixed woodland. The block includes a separate free range poultry paddock with fruit trees approached off the lane junction.
