GUIDE PRICE £675,000

Ainsty Farm development offers an exciting and unique opportunity for both self-builders and developers alike. Being made up of a substantial period house believed to date back to late 18th century, now in need of renovation as well as an extensive range of traditional and modern farm buildings all with planning permission.

Situation

Located on the edge of this much sought after semi-rural village which is conveniently situated a short distance from both Boston Spa and Tadcaster. These towns include sporting facilities, supermarket, cafes, bars and independent shops catering for all daily needs. The property also lies within the catchment area of the renowned Tadcaster Grammar School. The bustling market town of Wetherby is similarly close by and the village has ease of access to York, Leeds, the A64 and the region's excellent motorway network.

Plot 3 – Hartley Fold

A former agricultural building constructed of a steel portal frame clad and roofed with corrugated sheeting. The building has Class Q planning consent (Planning application – 23/00565/PBR) to create a substantial 4-bedroom dwelling with parking, garden and paddock extending to approx 1 acre (0.4 ha). The proposed living accommodation is to be arranged over 2 floors with an open plan kitchen, dining and living space, pantry, utility room, home office, cloak room, lift, 4 ensuite bedrooms and a house bathroom. The accommodation extends to 5,005 sq ft (465 m²).

The paddock is situated to the rear of the property, where there are also superb open countryside views. The property is to be accessed by a newly formed western access which serves Hartley Fold, Shires Cottage and Ainsty Farm House.
