£500,000

High Bank

Methven Road, Grange-over-Sands

An exceptionally well proportioned semi-detached house dating back to 1870. The property has views towards Morecambe Bay from the front aspect and occupies an elevated position within the historic seaside town of Grange-over Sands. The town has an extensive range of shops, cafes and hotels, a library, health care, railway station and post office and is served by Grange-over-Sands and Kents Bank railway stations, has good bus route links and offers easy access to the Lake District National Park and the M6.

The accommodation, which is laid to three floors, is beautifully presented throughout and briefly comprises porch, entrance hall, sitting room with woodburning stove, excellent dining kitchen, lounge, utility room and shower room on the ground floor. There are three bedrooms and a bathroom on the first floor and the second floor offers two further double bedrooms, a potential 6th bedroom/office and a potential bathroom/study. This appealing property benefits from double glazing and gas central heating.

Outside there are generous gardens and outdoor space, ample driveway parking and a versatile two storey outbuilding.
